CHAMPIONS, 11; DETROIT, 12. Boisterous Scene Marked the Close of the Game. It was a stormy game that Detroit took from the champions yesterday in a nose finish. The scenes that marked its close were boisterous and exciting. Watkins's men had Gayle going and might have won out had Cross not been caught napping at second in the most needless manner imaginable. He dropped when he saw Gayle throw the ball and reached for the base and the play was close, but it looked as if he was out and Umpire Snyder said so. This practically settled the game and at its conclusion quite a crowd surrounded Snyder and "jawed" at him harmlessly. The hostile demonstration went no further, though Manager Watkins and Hogriever walked by the umpire's side, the right fielder pushing several angry "rooters" aside in the course of the journey to the clubhouse. Snyder did not appear at al tion at all to the crowd and the disagreeble things being said about nim. The Detroits had all their fun in the first three innings, while the champions waited until the last three before they began enjoying themselves. Davis started in to pitch for Indianapolis, but had wretched control and gave way to Cross in the second. The latter was so easy for Detroit in the third that six runs were scored on seven hits and a base on balls. After that he pitched great bail, the visitors getting but two hits off him in five innings. Bobby Gayle, the ex-Hoosier, who pitches with is wrong hand, had the hardest sort of work holding the champions in check. They punched away at his curves persistently and should have won the game, as they hit much harder and fielded better than Detroit. The causes of the defeat were numerous. Stewart's two bad throws in the second inning-the only indianapolis errors-cost two runs. Davis's wiigness contributed a couple. Wood's passed ball in the eighth inning virtually gave Detroit In that winning run and when Cross was caught off second as referred to above the game for them. THE UMPIRE'S TROUBLES. The Detroiters had their troubles with the umpire in the eighth inning, when a close play at the plate on Stewart, who was called safe after an acrobatic slide, enraged them beyond measure. Stallings, who was on the bench, 'kicked" so ferociously that Snyder ordered him taken from the grounds, which action was accomplished without any noticeable opposition on the Detroit manager's part. In the ninth the umpire was forced to give Cross a rude shove in order to cool off the indignant pitcher, who was endeavoring to show Snyder where he was wrong in that second-base decision. Both teams presented a crippled front, Stewart playing third in Shiebeck's absence and Roat covering second. With the exception of Stewart's two errors the champions played good ball. Detroit had Trost in left field and Burnett at short, as both Stallings and Corcoran are on the disabled list. Nicholson wrenched his leg in the eighth inning, but pluckily stuck to the game until he had retired the side on a good throw. The strain of that play used him up completely, and he had to be helped to the bench. He was out of the game last season for some time because of that same troublesome leg, and this injury will probably force Detroit to use either Twineham of Trost at second for Burnett, who is playing short owing to Corcoran's injury, fumbled Hogriever's grounder to start with, and Roat sacrificed McCarthy's out moved Hogriever to third and Stewart's three-bagger to left scored him. Motz got a base on balls, but was caught thirty feet away from second on a steal. Nicholson bunted into Davis's hands. Off Stein, 5; off Abbey, 2; off Sullivan, 2. reeled off three bases on balls. Dungan Struck out—By Abbey, 1; by Meekin, 2; by Sullivan, I. Two-base hits—Shindle, Daly walked. With the bases full Giller (2), G. Davis, Tiernan (2), Gleason, Clark, to Roat. This was getting out of a hole without much damage, and had Davis steadied down, all might have been serene. But the big pitcher sent a not one right into the middle of Twineham's back, and the bad work began. Gayle hit to Stewart, who threw wild to second. Then Nicholson hit to Stewart, who plugged Twineham in the back with the ball, trying to catch him at the plate. This appeared to break Davis up completely. Knoll got a single, Dungan a double and Burnett a base on balls. Then Davis hit Whistler on the arm. and he claimed his base, but Snyder could not allow it under the rule. There was a long kick, after which Cross relieved Davis, and Whistler flew to McCarthy, scoring Knoll. Trost hit to center, and both Dun gan and Burnett were caught between third and home on a peculiar double play. Burnett had run on to third, when Trost hit the ball. Hogan fielded the ball in quickly, and Dungan, seeing he could not score, ran back to third. With both men there, it was a case of somebody going out, and by see-sawing on them the Indianapolis players managed to get both rurners.

In the third inning Gayle's muff of Whistler's throw, McCarthy's safe bunt, Stewart's sacrifice and wild throws by Burnett and Whistler gave Indianapolis two runs. This little dash of encouragement was forgotten adfew moments later when Detroit began to roll 'em up. Seven hits, two or three of them of the "scratchy" sort, together with a base on balls, yielded six runs. Still Watkins's men wouldn't let go. Hogriever's three-bagger and Roat's single earned one in the ourth and in the seventh they showed a disposition to get right into the game. Hogriever hit again for three bases and series. Breitenstein was wild, sending six that, with McCarthy's two-bagger, Burmen to bases on balls, but he kept the visitors down to eight hits and struck out four. The home team was unable to make more than six hits off Fisher's delivery.
and made several errors. Attendance, 2,000.

It was Wood's grounder right here that Nicholson made his final effort on and the throw which his final effort on and the throw which saved the game for his team was his last, probably, for some time. Wood had relieved Buckley after the fourth inning. In their half the Detroits scored the run which saved them. Burnett led with a single to center and Whistler sacrificed him to second. Wood picked out this unfortunate time to let a ball get away from him and Burnett reached third, scoring right afterwards on Trost's long fly to McCarthy, Gillen was out from short to first.

THAT HEART-BREAKING NINTH. With one out in the ninth, Phillips, who had taken Hogan's place in the seventh, hit to left for a base, Cross followed with a single to right and Hogriever did the same, scoring Phillips. By this time the big crowd was making noise enough for a Democratic convention and Indianapolis looked good for the game after all. Cross was playing well off second and Gayle made a bluff to throw there, Apparently

Ten Thousand Trial Bottles of Mun yon's Guaranteed Rheumatism and Dyspensia Cure Will Be Given Away for Two Days at The Sentinel Office, Beginning on Next Monday, June 29, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.

To the Editor Indianapolis Sentinel-Having discovered a positive and speedy cure for rheumatism and dyspepsia I address you in the hope that you will give publicity to my claim. I am well aware that in making the bold assertion that I have discovered a pos itive cure for rheumatism there will rise a strong doubt in the minds of the public as to the truth of this statement, and that a large majority of the people will class this new discovery with the Koon lymph failure and the Brown-Sequard elixir-of-life delu-

It is to overcome this prejudice that I invoke the aid of your paper. I court the fullest investigation under your direction and personal supervision. I would saggest that the fairest and surest way to test the efficacy of these remedies would be for this company to send 10,000 trial bottles to the Sentinel office, there to be given out absolutely free to all persons afflicted with rheumatism and dyspepsia; that the name and address of each person who accepts the remedy be entered n a book and at the end of one week a reporter be detailed to interview the paries who have taken the medicine, and that the results of each case be published in the Sentinel. By this means there can be no deception or fraud; and the value of the remedy will stand or fall upon the testimony of those who have tried it.

Improbable as this statement may seem to you or to those who have doctored for many years with the most skilled physicians without benefit, yet I affirm and um prepared to prove by over 60,000 people whom we have cured that these remedies will cure dyspepsia and acute or muscular worried and very sensibly paid no attenrheumatism in from one to five days. It never fails to cure sharp, shooting pains in the arms, sides, legs, back or breast, or oreness in any part of the body.

It is guaranteed to promptly cure lameness, sciatica, lumbago, stiff and swollen joints, stiff back and all pains in the hips and loins. It seldom fails to give relief after one or two doses, and almost invariably cures before one bottle has been used We do not claim that our rheumatic cure will cure rheumatism when the limbs are twisted out of shape, or where the disease is complicated by a scrofulous diathesis, tut by careful record we find that this remedy fails to cure only about 5 per cent. of the cases in which it has been tried.

We do claim, however, that our dyspepsia cure will cure all cases of dyspepsia o matter how severe or of how long stand-

One of the strongest recommendations for these remedies is that they are absolutely harmless, and that a person can take the whole contents of a bottle without the slightest fil effects. Unlike the medicine used in ordinary practice for the cure of dyspepsia and rheumatism, such as iodide of potash and salicylic acid, which irritate the stomach and kidneys and disorganize the whole system, without effecting a cure, these remedies act as a strong tonic, and are invaluable in building up the weak and

Believing that there is no cause so holy and inspiring, no vocation so lofty and ennobling, nothing so sure of man's gratitude and God's blessing as an honest effort to relieve suffering humanity, I beg to remain, yours truly,

JAMES M. MUNYON. Indianapolis, Ind., June 19, 1896. Prof. James M. Munyon, President Munyon

Homeopathic Remedy Co.: Dear Sir-The Indianapolis Sentinel accepts your above proposition and gives you the privilege of using its office for the distribution of 10,000 vials of your remedies in the interest of humanity, as suggested in your favor of June 17.

The Sentinel will from time to time investigate any facts brought to its notice regarding your discovery. Very respect-fully, INDIANAPOLIS SENTINEL CO. The distribution of the free trial bottles bove referred to will begin at 9 o'clock a. m., Monday June 29, at the Sentinel office, 21 and 23 North Illinois street, and continue for two days only. Let all interested be on hand.

Anson is quite a trap shooter. He recently entered a match at Cleveland, made a straight score of fifteen birds and walked off with a piece of the money. Barnes, the Milwaukee pitcher, plays in the field as well as any outfielder Milwau-kee has, including even little Nicol, who is considered the star of the club.

to get to the top himself. An accident to Jack O'Connor would put Cleveland in a serious hole. Zimmer could not play, under any circumstances, and Cleveland would have to go out in the lot to find a man to receive until O'Meara could be brought from Fort Wayne. After this week Indianapolis will have no baseball, except that furnished by the "little champions" at the Grand Opera House, until July 25. The games on the trip, with the exception of the Sunday ones, will all be reproduced by the automatons and their accompanying electric effects. Phillips came very close to winning that came yesterday when he gave Whistler a fine fly in the seventh, with two men on base. Whistler had to reach for it. A few nches more and the ball would have gone afe and two more runs would have been n. It was a hot game, if the leaders did

One point which will recommend Mertes to Philadelphia cranks is that he is a fast base-runner, something the team needs badly, and he is pronounced to have been to the Western League base-running class what Hamilton is to the National. A Baltimore correspondent ventures the quiet tip that Rusie's claim will be sustained. It will be found that the fines imposed upon Rusie last fail were illegal and contrary to contract, and Freedman will be ordered to pay them back.
